

FISCAL MEMORANDUM
HB 2606 – SB 2896

April 7, 2008

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (016115): Deletes the language of the original bill. Defines “normal operating hours” of a funeral establishment. Requires a funeral director to surrender the custody of a dead human body to the person legally entitled to custody within four hours of the written order. If the Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers finds that a violation of this order has occurred, the board will suspend the license of the funeral director and the funeral establishment for a minimum of 30 days. The board will inform each licensee of the provisions of this act in any manner deemed appropriate.
